

TORONTO ARROWS RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB

September 9, 2021

To Whom it May Concern,

McGregor Rowland worked as a Content Producer under my supervision during the summer of 2021 while the Toronto Arrows Rugby Football Club was based in Marietta, Georgia. During that time, I developed a very high regard for McGregor based on the outstanding contributions that he made to our organisation.

Our initial hope in Georgia was to find an intern who could casually shoot video content for our digital platforms, capturing occasional training sessions, and our matches at Life University.

McGregor exceeded our expectations for this role and delivered outstanding and well organized content each week, impressing us further when he purchased a DSLR camera and recording equipment out of his own pocket in order to spend time at home learning the craft of videography.

As a newcomer to the rugby (and the content producing) world, McGregor exhibited an impressive ambition to independently learn more about the sport and the technical aspects of video, and in turn, became a very valuable part of our content team on the ground - often shooting much more than we expected, allowing us to engage our fans in Canada and around the world.

The quality of McGregor's content improved dramatically in the early weeks as McGregor accepted all forms of feedback positively and engaged in independent research to improve his output.

On behalf of the entire Toronto Arrows organization, and in part, the Major League Rugby competition, I would like to recommend McGregor Rowland for any role he sees in his future. Besides displaying a strong willingness to learn outside his comfort zone, he is incredibly kind, respectful, and a pleasure to work with.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information or perspective.

Sincerely,

Elliott Devine
